

12 HECKLE STREET

Year Built: 1910

Area of Lot: 12,450 sq. ft.

List of Owners (with dates)		Book/Page
08/26/2006	Robert Bruce Wallace & Susan L. Johnson to Robert B. Wallace (Trustee of the Robert B. Wallace 2005 Family Trust)	24076/89
10/31/1980	David R. Ewer & Laverne P. Ewer to Robert B. Wallace & Susan L. Johnson	5801/324
08/26/1960	Ethel H. Meehan (formerly Ethel M. Skinner) to David R. Ewer & Laverne P. Ewer	3841/137

Includes 12 Heckle Street on 12,450 sq. ft. lot

05/11/1922	Joseph I. Lamb & Florence C. Lamb to Ethel M. Skinner	1516/206
03/24/1920	Ethel M. Skinner to Joseph I. Lamb & Florence C. Lamb	1449/178
03/29/1916	Mary Josephine Armitage to Ethel M. Skinner	1338/161
02/07/1914	William J. Armitage to Mary Josephine Armitage	1273/344

Includes site of 12 Heckle Street as 12,450 sq. ft. lot

02/17/1909	The Boston Safe Deposit & Trust Company (Trustee under the will of Caroline W. Heckle) to William J. Armitage	1103/208
------------	---	----------

Additional Information:

- 1910 Annual Town Report: William J. Armitage owns 12,450 sq. ft. of land on Heckle Place ($625).
- 1911 Annual Town Report: William J. Armitage owns a dwelling ($3200) and 12,450 sq. ft. of land on Heckle Place ($625).
- “Sergeant of Police, William J. Armitage, and Miss Mary Foley, of Hyde Park, were united in marriage, at Hyde Park, Tuesday evening, November first, by Rev. James J. Chittick, pastor of the Church of the Most Precious Blood, of that town... After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Armitage came to Wellesley to occupy their new home on Heckle Street, just completed by Sergeant Armitage.” – Wellesley Townsman: November 4, 1910